TRANDITIONAL
CURRY SELECTION

Choose the Curry style you would like, then choose the content.

Curry Dishes (Medium)	Korma Dishes (Mild)
A sauce of medium consistency produced from a wide but basic range of oriental spices, giving a rich flavour.	A preparaton of mild spices, using milk or yoghurt to create by its delicacy the flavour and creamy texture. A most suitable medium for chicken and lamb.
Bhuna Dishes (Medium)	Suraiya Dishes (Mild)
A combination of spices fried together to provide a dish of medium strength and rather dry consistency, as compared with curry.	A variety of spices are used for the preparation of this sauce. When cream, coconut and bananas are added, the result is milder and very tasty.
Madras Dishes (Hot)	Vindaloo Dishes (Very Hot)
South Indian version of the dishes found in Central and Eastern India, having a greater portion of tomato puree and those spices which lend a fiery taste to its richness.	Related to the Madras but involving a greater use of garlic, tomato, lemon, ginger and black pepper. It owes it's name, and in parts its contents to early Portuguese settlers.

Rogan Josh Dishes (Hot)	Samber Dishes (Hot)
The character of the dish is derived from tomatoes, pimentos and onions, fried in special oil in a manner which produces a dish of similar strength to Madras, yet milder than the Vindaloo.	Related to Ceylon, a hot spicy dish based upon the use of lentils, with fresh lemon added to obtain a sharp and distinctive flavour.
Dansak Dishes (Mild)	Dupiaza Dishes (Medium)
Of Persian origin, this tends to mildness yet derives a piquant richness from its blend of spiced oil with garlic & pineapple which belies the apparent confusion of its ingredients.	A method of preparation specially suitable for meat or fowl, which is briskly fried with fresh onions, black pepper, dhania, cinnamon, bay leaves and cardamons.
